Winter In Hokkaido

Date	Itinerary
Day One	Departure Noboribetsu Toyako	Departure -Toyako 【Noboribetsu Date Jidaimura】 Noboribetsu Date Jidaimura is a history theme park highlighting the Edo Period, one of the most attractive era in Japanese history. Step back in time to enjoy traditional games, activities, theaters, street performances and more. The charm of ancient Japan is abundant as you mingle with the Ninja and Oiran courtesans so symbolic of the Edo Period. 【Showa - Shinzan Kuma Bokujo】 This is a brown bear farm where you can buy food (some sort of bear crackers) and feed those bears. Although all kids enjoyed feeding bears, it is kind of pity to see the way those bears begging for food. 【Lake Toyak】 Lake Toya (洞爺湖, Tōyako) is part of the Shikotsu-Toya National Park. In addition to the lake itself, the Toyako region features hot springs and an active volcano, Mount Usu, which last erupted in the year 2000. The area also offers many fishing, hiking, and camping opportunities. Hotel: Toya Sun Palace Hotel <table border="1" data-bbox="323 1227 1528 1272"> <tr> <td>Breakfast: on the plane</td> <td>Lunch: Ninja Set Meal</td> <td>Dinner: Buffet</td> </tr> </table>	Breakfast: on the plane	Lunch: Ninja Set Meal	Dinner: Buffet

Day Two	Toyako Otaru	Toyako-Otaru 【Otaru Canal】 Otaru Canal (小樽運河, Otaru Unga) was a central part of the city's busy port in the first half of the 20th century. Large vessels were unloaded by smaller ships, which then transported the goods to warehouses along the canal. The canal became obsolete when modern dock facilities allowed for direct unloading of larger vessels. Thanks to a citizens' movement, a part of the canal was beautifully restored in the 1980s instead of being landfilled, while the warehouses were transformed into museums, shops and restaurants. 【Sakaimachi Street】 Sakaimachi Street is an attractive, preserved merchant street in central Otaru, a short walk from the city's canal area. During the development of Hokkaido in the late 1800s and early 1900s, Otaru thrived as a port city, and many trading and shipping companies constructed impressive Western style buildings in the city center to house their offices and shops. Many of the buildings along Sakaimachi Street have since been converted into restaurants, cafes, souvenir shops, boutiques and museums. There are also a few glass workshops for tourists to enjoy a hands-on experience in creating the local Otaru Glass.

		【 Music Box Museum 】 Otaru Music Box Museum is one of the largest museum shops of music boxes, orgel, in Japan. The beautiful century-old building, designated as one of historic landmarks of OtaruCity, is full of music boxes in various sizes and types.Among many historical warehouses made by soft stones in the city, this building really stands out with red brick walls and Renaissance style arch -top windows. The appearance of the Main Building of Music Box Museum built in 1912.Please enjoy the world of music box in nostalgic atmosphere.

[Hokkaido Shrine] Hokkaido Shrine was built in 1869, when the development of Hokkaido first started. People visit the shrine on celebratory occasions such as weddings and New Years Day. People may come here to receive blessings when they or their children reach certain ages. When they have bought a new car, they bring it to get a blessing for its safety.

[Sapporo Beer Museum] Sapporo Beer Museum, the only beer museum in Japan, was opened in July of 1987 to provide visitors with a varied knowledge of beer and brewing. Renovated in 2004, the exhibition allows guests to learn easily about the history of Sapporo Breweries Ltd. and the beer industry in Japan. The building which now houses Sapporo beer Museum was constructed under the direction of foreign engineers in 1890 as the factory of the Sapporo Sugar Company. It is one of the precious cultural legacies of the Meiji Era, together with the old red brick Hokkaido Government Office.

[Shiroy Koibito Park] Shiroy Koibito Park is a fantastic space based on the ideals of deliciousness, fun and stories of sweets from a bygone era. In addition to housing the Shiroy Koibito Factory where this well-known Hokkaido confectionery is produced, the park also has a cafe to allow visitors to savor Ishiya's original sweets, the Cookiecraft Studio (where budding confectioners can try their hand at making their
